"A New Generation of Bible School GATS Graduates is Taking the Reins"

They left the Church for the World . . . and dedicated back to God at the Bible School

↑ Two Sons Come Home!

Brother Pituk (top) is 34 years old, raised in his father's church, but went into the "world" at a young age. His friend, Brother Sitthichai, (bottom) is 27 years old and also left his father's church at a young age. But two years ago the Lord convicted both of them, they came to the Bible School, repented and graduated this past quarter. They are both now beginning to take over the pastoral reins of their respective churches.

"A New Generation of Missionaries is Bringing Modern Evangelism"

← Brother Greg and Sister Nicki Byers have left their home, jobs, and ministry in the USA to soon become full-time Missionaries in Thailand. They are living near the Bible School and are beginning to train the staff at the school in modern evangelism. The group photo on the left shows them with two Bible School staff and us. The collage on the right is a "ZOOM" screen capture from the initial online ministry training with our two staff.
